REMEMBER 1978 ?

1978 was the year we saw Star Wars, Grease, The Deer Hunter, Jaws, and Animal House on the silver screen. The first test tube baby was born in Europe, and a moon was discovered orbiting Pluto. Locally, our governor was Dixie Lee Ray, and the treasures of Tutahnkamen came to Seattle. On the court, Chris Evert Lloyd & Jimmy Connors were the U.S. Open champs, and in the ring, the heavyweight boxing title was won by Leon Spinks, and after only seven months, was regained by Muhammed Ali. On the field, the Dallas Cowboys defeated the Denver Broncos in the Superbowl, and on the dance floor, most of us were doing the Disco!
