LHS LAUREATES 1977-78

12-21

Laureates of the Month

SENIORS BRIGETTE BARRETT and Skip Walton have been named November Laureates of the Month at Lynnwood High School by the South County Exchange Club. Brigette is the daughter of Robert and Linda Barretti of Lynnwood. She is a cheerleader, member of National Honor Society and DECA and is also active in Edmonds United Methodist Church. Skip, son of Paul and June Walton of Lynnwood, is an honor student and active in Alderwood Manor Community Church where he sings in the youth choir. "Sounds of Freedom".

1-11

Lynnwood laureates

NAMED LYNNWOOD Laureates of the Month for December at Lynnwood High School were Barbara Erga and Jeff Seely. The program is sponsored by the school and the South County Exchange Club. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Erga. She is senior class president, member of National Honor Society, Chimera Club, Senior DECA vice president, interhigh representative and past worthy advisor of Rainbow. Jeff, son of the Paul Seelys, is a member of National Honor Society, has lettered in track for three years and is a science department lab assistant, attended Boys' State and accompanies the youth ensemble on the piano. He also teaches piano.

3-15

JERRY STOLP AND JACKIE HENRY

Two athletes top Laureates

The South County Exchange Club and Lynnwood High School announce the selection of Jackie Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henry, and Jerry Stolp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stolp, as Laureates of the Month for January.

Jackie, a junior, is already known as one of the finest girl athletes in the state. She was a member of the girls varsity volleyball team, is currently playing basketball and last year was the Wesco champion in the shotput and placed second in the state in the same event.

She serves as ASB treasurer, a class representative to the Royal Court and is a member of the National Honor Society. Much of her out of school time is taken up with track activities and when time and weather permit, skiing. Her future plans include attending college. Jerry is the third member of the Stolp family to win a Laureate award. Running is a family talent and Jerry has proven his ability in cross country and distance running. He has lettered three years in cross country and was honored as team captain this past fall. He is a distance runner on the track squad and lettered as a sophomore and junior. He currently covers sports for the Enterprise.

His out of school time is spent running and writing. He plans to attend college and major in journalism.

4-5

RANDY STANSBERRY AND LEANN BIRT

Birt, Stansberry named Laureates

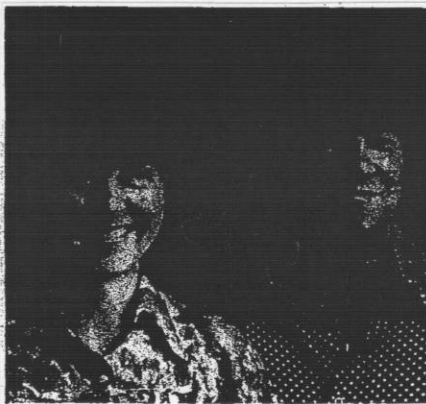

The South Snohomish County Exchange Club and Lynnwood High School announced the selection of LeAnn Birt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Birt, and Randy Stansberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stansberry, as Lynnwood's Laureates for the month of February.

LeAnn has worked in the Guidance Department as an assistant during school and volunteered many hours before school starts in the registration process. She is a member of the National Honor Society. She is a member of the Yearbook Staff and belongs to VICA—Vocational Interest Club of America—with a primary interest in health occupations. She is an active member of the Horizon Club.

Randy has been active in athletics all three years at Lynnwood High School. He has participated in football, basketball, and baseball. This year, he was named to the first team ALL-WESCO defensive team as an end.

He also earned second team ALL-WESCO honors as an offensive end. He has served as a student representative in the Student Senate. Work occupies much of his outside-of-school time.

5-31

Honored at LHS

JODY DAVIDSON and Cory Elwell have been chosen laureates of the month for April at Lynnwood High School. Both are seniors. Jody is senior class treasurer, Future Business Leaders of America chapter president and member of National Honor Society and Chimera's. Her parents are Alfred and Patricia Davidson, Lynnwood. Cory is a member of chamber choir, concert choir, the Chantels and National Honor Society. He is the son of Edward and Mary Elwell, Alderwood Manor.

6-14

Top Laureates

Lynnwood High School's laureates of the month for May are Joanne Neubauer and Dave Thomas, both seniors. Joanne is chairman of the baccalaureate committee, winner of the President's physical fitness award and active in a Christian youth group. She is the daughter of Leo and Elvina Neubauer of Bothell.

Dave lettered as manager of the football team and is an English assistant. His parents are Melvin and Diane Thomas of Lynnwood.

OTHER LHS AWARD RECIPIENTS 1978

A winning sculpture

3-29

METAL SCULPTURES by a teacher and his three students from Lynnwood High School have won nine awards at a state industrial arts conference. Teacher Bob Carlsson and students Dale Dahlberg, Jeff Foote and Cody Sims won their awards March 17-18 in Vancouver, Wash. at the 28th annual Washington Industrial Arts Conference. Carlsson took an exemplary first, a second and a third for his bell buoy wall hanging fashioned from recycled auto sheet metal. The exemplary designation refers to craftsmanship. Dahlberg received a first and two seconds, while Foote took a second and a third and Sims got a second. Dahlberg's drag boat, trailer and custom truck combination notched the blue ribbon. Seniors (from left) Dale Dahlberg, Jeff Foote and Cody Sims are shown with the sculpture.
